

TRADITIONAL ANDEAN WEAVING

Experiences_Full day

Sol y Luna enjoys strong links with the local community and regularly invites groups of talented women to run workshops demonstrating their intricate weaving skills for which the Sacred Valley is famous.

Guests observe weavers carrying out textile production, beginning with the untangling of natural wool fibers, to spinning and coloring using natural dyes made of flowers, roots and herbs. Weavers display the ancient ancestral techniques that endure to this day – guests will be mesmerized by the mastery with which this art is practised.

Timetable: From 8:00 am to 4:00 pm
